

Veterans Drama Therapy Group

Tuesdays 5:30-7 p.m.

January 31-March 21, 2017 (8 weeks)

To learn more

Information Meetings

5:30 p.m., Tuesday, January 24, or
8 a.m., Wednesday, January 25, or
11 a.m., Wednesday, January 25, or
Contact lisa.peacock@pgr.anglia.ac.uk

Drama therapy is an approach to facilitating change using storytelling and improvisation to expand and add flexibility in life roles. This may enhance a person's sense of belonging and quality of life. Sense of belonging is a feeling of being valued, needed, accepted and that you fit into the environment in which you live. It uses action methods to facilitate insight, growth, creativity, and imagination.*

Location

Center for Adult and Veterans Services, Conference Room
Kent State University, 181 Schwartz Center, Kent, Ohio
(parking in adjoining lot)

A free 8-week veterans-only group facilitated by Lisa Peacock, MA, RDT, and PhD drama therapy student at Anglia Ruskin University, Cambridge, UK.
This program is part of a dissertation research project.

Questions? Contact lisa.peacock@pgr.anglia.ac.uk

* North American Drama Therapy Association, 2014; British Association of Dramatherapists, 2013